Ask the Pavin' Maven!

Question: What should I expect when I contract Krügel Cobbles to build my dream patio and sidewalks?
-Pat Brickmore

Answer: Quality and assurance that a hardscape specialist will guide you through the entire process from project commencement to project completion. Also, we'll be there to answer your concerns long after the job is done.

Question: How do I get rid of oil stains from my beautiful brick driveway?
-Shirley B. Stone

Answer: First, try scrubbing the affected bricks with dish washing soap and water. If stain is still visible, you can try Simple Green, which is a product that's frequently used by our maintenance crew to treat oil stains on pavers. It's worked for us and it could work for you. You can find Simple Green at your local hardware store. If you are still haven't trouble, give Krügel Cobbles a call, they'll be happy to help you.
